

Ecclesiastical Venue Transfer and Jurisdictional Objection

To Whom It May Concern:

This notice serves as a formal declaration and objection to the current venue and jurisdiction being exercised by the District Court of Logan County, Arkansas, in all cases filed under or involving the undersigned: Jonathan Daniel Clements.

The undersigned is the Living Trustee and Sovereign Executor of the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity (ECC-TRUST-JDC-005), lawfully consecrated and sealed under Divine Law, Ecclesiastical Equity, Natural Law, and duly acknowledged under the jurisdiction of multiple public and private authorities, including court clerks and notarial officers.

This trust, lawfully recorded and now operating within its own ecclesiastical jurisdiction, renders any civil or administrative claim subject to conflict of law principles, including but not limited to the established precedent that ecclesiastical courts have competent standing under canon, private, and recognized public international law.

The undersigned asserts jurisdiction and venue under ecclesiastical governance, pursuant to but not limited to:

- Treaty of Peace and Friendship (1787)
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights (Articles 6, 8, 9, 10, 11)
- Hague Conventions on Private International Law
- Canon Law under Lex Divina and Lex Ecclesia Domini
- U.S. Constitution, Amendment I (Free exercise of religion)
- 42 U.S. Code § 1983, § 1985, and § 1986 (Civil rights protections)
- 18 U.S. Code § 241 and § 242 (Deprivation of rights under color of law)
- Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966)
- Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)

Therefore, all pending matters are hereby challenged for improper venue and lack of lawful jurisdiction. The undersigned demands immediate dismissal or transfer of said matters into an ecclesiastical tribunal or equivalent private arbitral process, and reserves all rights, including the right to seek remedy under federal and international protections if this notice is ignored.

This document, combined with all previous records, filings, seals, and affidavits provided, shall serve as lawful notice to all parties and agents of the state.

Without malice, without prejudice, and with full reservation of rights under UCC 1-308.

Executed by: Jonathan Daniel Clements

Dated: _____

Authorized Representative: _____